

Key Message Artist Morpheo

I work through images, symbols and processes of transformation to create art – not to please, but to reveal truth.

My works arise from silence, depth and inner clarity.

I believe in the healing power of creativity and that colours, shapes and symbols can evoke memories where words fail.

I open spaces where people can encounter themselves – without masks, without judgement, without haste – and I work not for the market, but for resonance.

Not everyone is called – but the right ones will find me.

I honour the alchemy of life: transformation, maturation, integration.

My magical art may be carried on walls, in hearts, in life's transitions.

My Morpheo Art Studio is an alchemical space between art, magic and encounter.

A place where colours whisper, symbols evoke memories and creativity becomes a gateway to inner transformation.

Here, a painting studio, medieval laboratory and meeting place merge into a living vessel of becoming. Surrounded by pigments, scents and symbols, people discover their inner expressiveness – listening, experimenting, creating.

Courses and workshops invite you to try your hand at creativity, revive ancient knowledge and consciously shape your own expression.

Sigil collages, magical symbols and fascinating images arise from intuition and depth.

In the medieval laboratory, research is conducted, collections are assembled and exhibitions are held – combining alchemy, myth and craftsmanship.

Art, alchemist's tea and conversations intertwine with incense, fairy figures and magical objects.

Art supplies, esotericism and special items find their place here, as do silence, exchange and inspiration.

The Morpheo art studio is a space beyond the everyday.
A place for seekers, creators and rememberers.
A laboratory of transformation – inside and out.

I look forward to your visit to my little kingdom on beautiful Lake Constance and welcome you with open arms
